

LISLE FILM FESTIVAL GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION

WHAT:

An outdoor film festival held in Lisle Community Park.

ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANTS:

Open to all non-professional film makers

FILMING REQUIREMENTS:

Although festival-related filming will most likely be considered non-commercial, it is recommended that participants be required to obtain permitting and follow all local guidelines of locations they are filming. A permit provides each crew with clear filming guidelines at the beginning of their project which will benefit the film crew as well as Lisle residents and businesses. It is the film makers responsibility to check with location they are filming. All film crews should secure a certificate of liability insurance when applicable.

COVID-19 SAFETY PRECAUTIONS:

Participation in the 2021 Lisle Film Contest should follow all state and federal COVID-19 safety guidelines. Teams should be comprised of household family members that have been adhering to COVID-19 safety guidelines. Some portions of filmmaking, such as writing, editing, etc can be accomplished between team members via online methods, such as Zoom meetings. Actual filming of scenes again should adhere to all current state and federal COVID-19 safety guidelines. If filming at a Lisle location other than a team's primary residence, maximum occupancy limits need to be followed.

ENTRANCE FEES:

Entrance fees are $30 for Resident and $50 for Non-Resident per participating team.

RULES AND REGULATIONS:

In the United States, The Lisle Film Contest (Contest) is intended for play by legal residents and legal visitors of the United States. Residency requirements may vary in other countries. Void where prohibited.
