PROCEDURES FOR EXPERIENCING SYMPTOMS AT A PROGRAM

If a participant begins to feel COVID-19 symptoms while at a program, they will be sent home. In the case the participant is waiting for their ride home, they will wait in a designated isolation area as determined by staff until picked up.

If participant does contract COVID-19, they should:

If the participant has been gone based upon the order and/or recommendation of their physician, we will require a note from a physician indicating that the participant can return to the program or facility.

POSITIVE CASE OF COVID-19

If a participant or staff member has contracted COVID-19, communication will be sent to anyone who had close contact with that individual. They will be advised to quarantine 14 days after the last recent contact with the individual and seek a COVID-19 test.
