Lisle, IL – On January 12 at the monthly meeting of the Lisle Park District Board of Park Commissioners, the 2016 Photography Contest winners were announced, including awards for first place, second place, third place and honorable mention.

The highest award for first place was presented to Scott Carlson for his original photograph taken of the ‘Morning Mist’ on a clear day in Lisle Community Park. Scott’s photo is now on display in the Lisle Park District Recreation Center lobby at 1925 Ohio Street. The honor for second place was awarded to Mary Harmon for her vibrant photograph ‘Bird on a Thistle’ capturing a goldfinch on its perch. The third place photograph was taken by Albert Yu during a spectacular ‘Illumination’ fireworks display at the annual Lisle Eyes to the Skies festival over the 4th of July weekend in Lisle Community Park. Last but certainly not least, honorable mention was given to Tracy Roehn for her quick flash capturing a competitive moment ‘When Your Teammate Loses a Cleat, Take the Ball to the Goal’ during a Lisle Classic Soccer League game. All four photographs can be seen in the 2017 Lisle Park District Winter/Spring brochure and on the Lisle Park District website at lisleparkdistrict.org/photographycontest.

Help the Lisle Park District celebrate ‘50 Years of Fun’ by showing off the memories you have made over the past 50 years! This year, in honor of the Lisle Park District’s 50th anniversary, the 2017 Photography Contest includes a special twist. Any photos taken within the last 50 years can now be submitted and entered into the annual photo contest through October 1, 2017. Please note that all photographs must be taken at a Lisle Park District park, facility, event or program.
