Lisle, IL – Signs of spring are starting to pop up everywhere, and the Lisle Park District has organized a couple holiday events to get you back outdoors after a long, white winter.

Next Saturday, March 24, at 10:00am sharp, bring your basket for the annual Egg Hunt in Lisle Community Park, 1825 Short Street. Children ages 10 and under are invited to hunt for colorful eggs by age group (2 and under, 3-5, 6-10) in different areas of the park. Prizes will be awarded to those who find the golden eggs! Bring your cameras to take a picture with the Bunny, and don't forget to dress warm. Fee per child is $5 for residents and $8 for nonresidents on or before March 16, and $7 for residents and $10 for nonresidents after March 16. The fee to register on March 24 or on-site at the event is $10 for residents and nonresidents. For more information and to register, visit LisleParkDistrict.org/specialevents or call 630-964-3410.

On Thursday, March 29, at 9:00pm sharp, grab your flashlight for a new twist on a classic springtime tradition. Make sure you have fresh batteries, and head on over to Lisle Community Park for the annual Flashlight Egg Hunt. Children in grades 6-9 are invited to hunt for eggs filled with candy in the dark! Remember to dress warm, wear your athletic shoes, and bring your student ID to show at check-in. Save up to $5 when you register before Friday, March 23! Fee per child is $5 for residents and $8 for nonresidents on or before March 23, and $7 for residents and $10 for nonresidents after March 23. The fee to register on March 29 or on-site at the event is $10 for residents and nonresidents. For more information and to register, call 630-964-3410 or visit LisleParkDistrict.org/specialevents.
