Lisle, IL - To coax you out of your winter slumber, the Lisle Park District has organized several programs and events that will help you plan your spring and summertime schedule.

Look for your Lisle Park District Summer 2017 Brochure, which should arrive in the mail any day now! The brochure is also available for pick-up at the Recreation Center, 1925 Ohio Street in Lisle, and the Community Center, 1825 Short Street in Lisle, and will be online starting April 1 at LisleParkDistrict.org. Next weekend, the bunny will be coming out of hibernation to join us at the Egg Hunt, and on Thursday, April 13, Lisle Community Park will be aglow during the Flashlight Egg Hunt! Keep reading to learn more about these annual festive events.

Next Saturday, April 8, at 10:00am sharp, bring your basket to Lisle Community Park for the annual Egg Hunt. Children ages 10 and under are invited to hunt for colorful eggs by age group (2 and under, 3-5, 6-10) in different areas of the park. Prizes will be awarded to those who find the golden eggs! Bring your cameras to take a picture with the Bunny, and don't forget to dress warm. Fee per child is $5 for residents and $8 for nonresidents on or before March 31, and $7 for residents and $10 for nonresidents after March 31. The fee to register on April 8 or on-site at the event is $10 for residents and nonresidents. For more information and to register, visit LisleParkDistrict.org/specialevents or call 630-964-3410.

On Thursday, April 13, at 9:00pm sharp, grab your flashlight for a new twist on a classic springtime tradition. Make sure you have fresh batteries, and head on over to Lisle Community Park for the annual Flashlight Egg Hunt. Children ages 9-14 are invited to hunt for eggs filled with candy in the dark! Remember to dress warm and wear your athletic shoes. Save when you register before Friday, April 7! Fee per child is $5 for residents and $8 for nonresidents on or before April 7, and $7 for residents and $10 for nonresidents after April 7. The fee to register on April 13 or on-site at the event is $10 for residents and nonresidents. For more information and to register, visit LisleParkDistrict.org/specialevents or call 630-964-3410.
