Lisle, IL – Although Lisle Park District facilities are currently closed in accordance with the state’s stay-at-home order, we’re doing our best to keep the community engaged and entertained – virtually.

Even with cancelled events and programs, Lisle Park District remains committed to keeping residents engaged and connected, even if that has to be done virtually. In March, the park district launched a new, completely virtual campaign, “enLIVEen Lisle,” to continue to provide content, activity ideas, and a virtual space for community members to “gather” and interact. EnLIVEen Lisle consists of regular social media posts with suggestions on ways to stay busy, for both adults and children.

Since March, enLIVEen Lisle activities have included a community Spirit Week – a week with new themes daily, encouraging residents to participate along with the park district and submit their photos. This week also included regular story times, posted on social media pages. Most recently, we “hosted” a Virtual Pet Show, asking followers to submit photos of their pets based on daily categories. Regular content aimed at keeping spirits high, having fun, and families connecting will continue through the shelter-in-place order. To see past story times, how-to videos, and other content shared for enLIVEen Lisle, visit our website at

The park district continues to provide a variety of virtual programming, including fitness classes, e-sports, early childhood, arts, and theatre. For a full list of current programs, please visit lisleparkdistrict.org/virtualclasses. All updates concerning COVID-19 closures and cancellations can also be found on our website.
