B. 2027 Budget Draft – discussion

Director Garvy provided a brief explanation for some changes that were presented to the Board with the most recent budget draft. A brief discussion regarding line items involving tuition reimbursement was held between Director Garvy, Superintendent Silver, and Commissioner Wessel. Deputy Director Pratscher offered his appreciation for staff efforts to complete the proposed budget, and he briefly discussed changes to certain program areas meant to help decrease any deficits noted in previous years. Superintendent Silver noted that the proposed budget is anticipated to operate in a positive and solvent financial position exclusive of capital expenditures.

Commissioner Pereira noted that the next Board meeting will be held after the general election on November 3rd and inquired about possible changes to the budget. Superintendent Silver indicated that he will have updated information regarding the budget whether the referendum for the Community Activity Center is approved or not.

There was no further discussion and Director Garvy reported the draft budget will be presented again on November 12 for any final changes before it is put on display for the required 30 days prior to adoption in December.
